How the Circuit Works

➤ Participating Circuit writers each donate one reading per year to benefit Cave Canem. (Writers may decline invitations that pose scheduling, geographic or other conflicts.)

➤ Each sponsoring host is limited to one Circuit reading per year. Hosts are asked to book their programs 3 - 12 months in advance. Please be prepared to offer more than one date in case there is a scheduling conflict.

➤ In lieu of paying honorarium to the Circuit writer, the host pays a $1,000 program fee directly to Cave Canem. Host pays for the writer's travel, meals and accommodations.

➤ Cave Canem staff arranges contracts, acts as liaison between writers and hosts, and assists with logistics and promotion.

➤ To book a writer or make inquiries, contact Camille Rankine at 718.858.0000 or poetrycircuit@ccpoets.org.
